THE GOOD WIFE.

It's just as you say, neighbor Green,
A treasure indeed is my wife;
Such another for bustle and work,
I never have seen in my life.
But then she keeps every one else
As busy as birds on the wing;
There is never a moment for rest,
She is such a fidgety thing.

She makes the best bread in town,
Her pies are a perfect delight,
Her coffee a rich golden brown,
Her crullers and puddings just right.
But then, while I eat them, she tells
Of the care and the worry they bring,
Of the martyr-like toil she endures,
O, she's such a fidgety thing!

My house is as neat as a pin,
You should see how the door-handles shine,
And all of the soft cushioned chairs
And nicely swept carpets are mine.
But then she so frets at the dust,
At a fly, at a straw, or a string,
That I stay out of doors all I can,
She is such a fidgety thing.

She doctors the neighbors; O, yes,
If a child has the measles or croup,
She is there with her saffron and squills,
Her dainty-made gruels and soup.
But then she insists on her right
To physic my blood every spring,
And she takes the whole charge of my bile,
O, she's such a fidgety thing!

She knits all my stockings herself;
My skirts are bleached white as the snow;
My old clothes look better than new,
She patches so nicely, you know.
But then if a morsel of lint
Or dust to my trousers should cling,
I'm sure of one sermon at least,
She is such a fidgety thing.

You have read of a spirit so meek,
So meek that it never opposes,
Its own it dares never to seek,—
Alas, I am meeker than Moses!
But then I am not reconciled
The subordinate music to sing,
I submit to get rid of a row,
She is such a fidgety thing.

It's just as you say, neighbor Green,
A treasure to me has been given:
But sometimes I fain would be glad
To lay up my treasure in heaven.
But then every life has its cross,
Most pleasures on earth have their sting,
She's a treasure I know, neighbor Green,
But she's such a fidgety thing.

MRS. H. C. GARDNER.

Stonewall Jackson.

[From Gilmor's "Four Years in the Saddle."]

On the Sunday morning after the battle of McDowell, while the whole of the Stonewall Brigade were deployed on the front as skirmishers, General Jackson's Adjutant, Robert L. Dabney, preached a sermon, surrounded by the army. The place selected was an open bottom, well up to the front, for every shot could be heard distinctly, and occasionally a stray bullet would come whizzing by. Mr. Dabney stood on the ground uncovered; General Jackson a few paces in front, resting on one foot, with his hat off, shading his face from the sun. I watched him closely, and saw not a muscle change during the whole service. The sturdy soldiers, browned in many a hard-fought field, were lying around on bunches of hay, taken from the stacks near by; and although an incessant skirmish fire was going on, all listened attentively, with every eye upon the great chief.—Few have I seen with such unflinching nerve, and it was his iron will that won for us many a stubborn fight.

While sitting near him the day previous, with my company in rear to act as couriers, a shell came crashing through the trees and cut asunder a large white oak within a few feet of the General. It fell, but fortunately it fell from him, otherwise he certainly must have been crushed to death.

"My gracious! General," I exclaimed, "you have had a narrow escape."

He was then a little hard of hearing, and thinking he had not heard me, I repeated, "You have had a narrow escape, sir."

"Ah! you think so, sir—you think so." And turning towards my men, "you had better shelter them in a ravine near by," but did not move himself until he was called to another part of the field. Fear had no lodgement in that man's breast.

AN ELOQUENT PASSAGE.—The finest thing George D. Prentice ever wrote is this inimitable passage:

It cannot be that earth is man's only abiding place. It cannot be that our life is a bubble cast up by the ocean of eternity to float a moment upon its waves, and sink into nothingness. Else why is it the high and glorious aspirations, which leap like angels from the temple of our hearts, are forever wandering unsatisfied. Why is it that the rainbow and cloud come over us with a beauty that is not of earth, and then pass off to leave us to muse on their loveliness? Why is it that the stars which "hold their festival around the midnight throne," are set above the grasp of our limited faculties; forever mocking us with their unapproachable glory! And finally, why is it that bright forms of human beauty are presented to our view and taken from us; leaving the thousand streams of our affections to flow back in an Alpine torrent upon our heart? We are born for a higher destiny than that of earth. There is a realm where the rainbow never fades; where the stars will be spread out before us like the Islands that slumber on the ocean, and where the beautiful beings which pass before us like shadows will stay forever in our presence,—forever.

An Irish glazier was putting a pane of glass into a window, when a groom who was standing by began joking him, telling him to mind and put in plenty of putty. The Irishman bore the banter for some time, but at last silenced his tormentor by "Arrah, now, be off wid ye, or else I'll put a pain in yer head without any putty."

A Frenchman, on arriving in England, and finding himself unobserved, no official asking his passport, no policeman dogging his steps, no mayor demanding his business, felt sad and lonely, and ejaculated that he was taken no more notice of than if he was a little dog.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

JONATHAN WORTH, OF RANDOLPH.

Remember that the election for the ratification of the amended Constitution of North Carolina, will be held on the 2d., 3rd. and 4th of August next, throughout the State,

"Mr. Turner is mistaken as to Gov. Graham's influence at Washington and elsewhere North. We tell Mr. Turner that we have recently been in Washington and talked freely with the President, with members of the Cabinet, and members of Congress, and, with the exception of Garret Davis and a few other old secession fogies, such politicians as Mr. Graham, Mr. Turner, Gov. Vance, Gov. Worth and the like, have no consideration and no influence whatever."—Standard.

If a man be consistent and reliable, and holds to old and tried principles, he is called an old fogy. If so, what do you call that man who holds to nothing long at a time?—first a Whig, then a Democrat, then a secessionist, then a disunionist, then a Union man, then a Radical!—Gov. Holden denies having been a Know Nothing,—also that he was Head Centre of the Knights of the Golden Circle; but he does not deny now having been a secessionist. Several months ago, his paper denied it flatly.

Mr. Graham, Mr. Turner, Gov. Vance, Gov. Worth, and the like, have no consideration and no influence whatever, at Washington, says Gov. Holden. The three first named must have very potent influence at Washington. They are certainly very much feared by Gov. Holden, which led him to urge and beg that they might not be pardoned. The Radicals seem to fear them, and hence oppose their pardon—while the President seems to fear the Radicals will make a fuss, if he does pardon them. Their consideration and influence at the North must be immense. If they were without influence at the North or here, Gov. Holden would have signed their petitions at once, for immediate pardon, in the hope to secure their support. But he feared, he dreaded them, and hence he hated them. Mordecai, the Jew, was the object of Haman's fear and dread, and, hence, he hated him.

Gov. Worth is in possession of evidence of his positive influence at Washington. He has used his kind offices with success in securing the pardon of many, who were recomended for suspension by Gov. Holden. All those 500 men, whom Gov. Holden officially announced were pardoned, and who were permitted to vote, not one of whom was then pardoned, have been pardoned since, through the efforts of Gov. Worth. Through his efforts a signal benefit has been secured to the State, of which the people will know hereafter. To-day, his position before the intelligent people of the North, the President, the Cabinet and the Congress, is a thousand fold higher than that of his Provisional predecessor, for all that gives importance and political worth to a man.

As to Gov. Holden's influence at Washington, it is dog cheap. The President and Mr. Seward, who understand matters, could hardly do otherwise than offer him the little mission to San Salvador. Did they try to get the nomination through? They knew his influence for evil in North Carolina, and would doubtless have been glad to send him abroad; and yet, after that appointment was sent to the Senate, they left it to its fate. The thing boggled and stuck in the mud in the Senate, and the Provisional hurried off to Washington to try his hand upon the Rads himself. He stayed there ten or fifteen days, eating dirt and dancing around, but all to no purpose. There it stuck and stuck. The Ex-P. G. vowed and declared, abused the fathers and sons of secession, and, like Peter, may have vociferated that he had never been in that school, but alas! it stuck and stuck.—Finding all efforts fruitless, he returned home the most wo-begone looking object we have seen, and began to cry "sour grapes"—he "would not have such a mission." On Monday last, the Senate rejected the appointment, because of his active connection with the rebellion! What pesky blockheads that Senate must be, not, by any manner of means, to have believed that W. W. Holden, Ex-P. G. of North Carolina, was not an "unmistakably loyal man."

But he comes back, no doubt, with a programme and conditions in his pocket, and he is trying to carry them out.

"Hush-a-bye, baby, don't you cry,
For your good time will come by'm-bye,
But when it comes, I told you before,
It'll be something less than little Salvador!"

THE RADICAL organ is exercised because the late Convention in this District passed no resolutions. How does it like the following, passed by the District Convention at Salisbury, and introduced by the Hon. Nathanial Boyden?

Resolved, As the sense of this Convention, that the people of the sixth Congressional District, of the State of North Carolina, are loyal to the Government of the United States, and as such are desirous of being restored to all their rights and privileges, under the Federal Constitution of their fathers.

Resolved, That the Delegates of this Convention are hereby instructed to make this representation of the political feeling and sentiment of the people of this District, in the National Union Convention to be held in the city of Philadelphia, on the 14th. of August next.

Had the attention of the delegates in our Convention been called to the subject, they would have adopted, substantially, just such resolutions as the foregoing,—embodying, as they do, the truth as to the entire people of North Carolina, except, perhaps, the "strait sect," who sympathize with the Radicals, and are so ar disunionists in principle.

Tennessee.

The right of Tennessee, or of any other State, to representation in Congress, unrestricted by any other qualifications than those prescribed in the Constitution of the United States, has nothing to do with the ratification of the Constitutional amendment. That right is clear, indisputable, incontestible, and it is only withheld by a mad, vindictive and despotic power. We hail therefore, with pleasure, the action of the President in signing the bill for the admission of the Tennessee members, while denouncing the arbitrary, anomalous and unconstitutional manner in which it was effected. Representation, at least, by whatever means, has been secured; and it is so far a triumph for the President, that one of the insurgent States—and that the President's own—has been at last accorded her rightful place in the government. The Radicals, too, have stultified themselves, and exploded their own theories, by granting pay to the newly elected members of the State from the commencement of the session,—thereby virtually admitting that Tennessee was in the Union, and her members entitled to their seats, prior to the bogus action of her spurious Legislature.

But, in point of fact, Tennessee has not adopted the Constitutional amendment in any legitimate way, and Brownlow, in saying so, telegraphed a falsehood to Washington. Fifty-six members of the Legislature of that State, present and voting, constitute the necessary quorum for the transaction of any business. There were not at any time 56 voting, nor 56 present, either. The House of Representatives has never had a quorum. The two members whom Brownlow stated to be present, but not voting, were not present. They were in the committee-room, under guard, all the while. They were not in the House actually, constructively, or anyhow else. Therefore, there never was a quorum of the Tennessee Legislature, and the constitutional amendment was never passed by that State.

The Speaker of the House refuses to sign the resolution affirming the passage of the amendment, and the contest between him and the members of the House has been on the point whereon he insists, that the journal shall show what they desire to conceal—that the two unlawfully arrested and imprisoned members were not in the hall of the House at the time of the vote on the ratification proposition, but were under arrest in an adjoining committee-room.

And yet we are bidden by the Radical organ in this City to imitate the action of Tennessee. Never! North Carolina will not only not resort to a cheat, a fraud, a lie, to get a place in Congress, but she will never, under any circumstances, voluntarily accept the infamous Constitutional amendment, (which has been crammed, by treachery, deception and force, combined, down the throats of the unhappy people of Tennessee,) in order to secure a degraded and inferior position in the government.

THE PHILADELPHIA Age, with wonderful and most commendable perseverance, has waded through the large volume containing the testimony before the Reconstruction Committee, and has made some important discoveries.—The following, for instance, which we give on the authority of the Age, is an extract from the testimony of Jno. C. Underwood, who is called Judge of the District Court of the United States for Virginia:

Q. Could either Jefferson Davis or Robert E. Lee be convicted ot treason in Virginia?

A. Oh, no! unless you had a packed jury.

Q. Could you manage to pack a jury there?

A. I think it would be very difficult, but it could be done. I could pack a jury to convict him.

That the Radicals should conceive the idea of trying Mr. Davis by a packed jury, or that Underwood should offer himself as the instrument of such villainy, does not surprise us in the least; but what a commentary upon the corruption of the times, and the character of a party that would wink at such a horrible prostitution of the judicial office,—hitherto the great bulwark of civil and constitutional liberty! There is nothing in the history of the English star-chamber or the terrible mock-courts of the French reign of Terror, that exceeds the foregoing development in iniquity, venality and vengefulness.

District and State Conventions.

We judge that all the Districts of the State, i. e. seven, have chosen or will elect delegates to the Philadelphia Convention. It is proposed that the delegates elected, or such as the several County or District Conventions shall elect for that purpose, shall meet in this city on the 10th. of August next, to select four delegates at large for the State. We suggested the 11th., but we observe that the Conventions prefer the 10th.—It is a matter of small importance, how the delegates to select the State delegates are appointed, but they should all fix upon the same day to convene here. Each Congressional District, we presume, will be entitled to the same number of votes in making the selection.

RUMOR.—It is rumored that the able letter, published by us, some days ago, in relation to the new Constitution, and the powers of the Convention, was written by the Venerable Thomas Ruffin, late Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. It was a private letter written to a personal friend, who was a member of the Convention. We have no authority for saying that the rumor is correct, nor is it at all important, if its doctrines are well founded. It is a matter of great importance, and should be carefully considered, whether the ratification by the people, can validate the instrument.

Second Congressional District.

The Convention for this District, which assembled on the 25th., was well attended.

Hon. M. E. Manly and Wm. A. Wright, Esq., were elected delegates to represent the District in the Philadelphia Convention, and Judge Howard was recommended as one of the delegates for the State at large.

Proceedings of Public Meetings in Northampton and Greene Counties received and shall appear to-morrow.

THE ADMISSION OF TENNESSEE.

The Message from the President.

The following message was received by the House from the President yesterday:

To the House of Representatives.—The following "joint resolution restoring Tennessee to her relations to the Union" was last evening presented for my approval:

Whereas, In the year 1861, the Government of the State of Tennessee was seized upon and taken possession of by persons in hostility to the United States, and the inhabitants of such States, in pursuance of an act of Congress, were declared to be in a state of insurrection against the United States; and whereas, said State Government can only be restored to its former political relations in the Union by the consent of the law-making power of the United States; and whereas, the people of said State did, on the 22d. day of Februrary, 1865, by a large popular vote, adopt and ratify a Constitution of government, whereby slavery was abolished, and all ordinances and laws of secession, and debts contracted under the same, were declared void; and whereas, a State Government has been organized under said Constitution, which has ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery, also the amendment proposed by the thirty-ninth Congress, and has done other acts proclaiming and denoting loyalty; therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the State of Tennessee is hereby restored to her former proper practical relations to the Union, and is again entitled to be represented by Senators and Representatives in Congress.

The preamble simply consists of statements, some of which are assumed, while the resolution is merely a declaration of opinion. It comprises no legislation, nor does it confer any power which is binding upon the respective Houses, the Executive, or the States. It does not admit to their seats in Congress the Senators and Representatives from the State of Tennessee; for, notwithstanding the passage of the resolution, each House, in the exercise of the Constitutional right to judge for itself of the elections, returns and qualifications of its members, may, at its discretion, admit them, or continue to exclude them. If a joint resolution of this character were necessary and binding as a condition precedent to the admission of members of Congress, it would happen, in the event of a veto by the Executive, that Senators and Representatives could only be admitted to the halls of legislation by a two-thirds vote of each of the two Houses.

Among other reasons recited in the preamble for the declarations contained in the resolution is the ratification, by the State Government of Tennessee, of "the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery, and also the amendment proposed by the 39th Congress." If, as is also declared in the preamble, "said State Government can only be restored to its former political relations in the Union by the consent of the law-making power of the United States," it would really seem to follow that the joint resolution which at this late day has received the sanction of Congress, should have been passed, approved and placed on the statute books before any amendment to the Constitution was submitted to the Legislature of Tennessee for ratification. Otherwise, the inference is plainly deducible that while, in the opinion of Congress, the people of a State may be too strongly disloyal to be entitled to representation, they may nevertheless, during the suspension of their "former practical relations to the Union," have an equally potent voice with other and loyal States in propositions to amend the Constitution, upon which so essentially depend the stability, prosperity, and very existence of the nation.

A brief reference to my annual message of the 4th. of December last will show the steps taken by the Executive for the restoration to their Constitutional relations to the Union of the States that had been affected by the rebellion. Upon the cessation of active hostilities Provisional Governors were appointed, Conventions called and Governors elected by the people,—Legislatures assembled, and Senators and Representatives chosen to the Congress of the United States. At the same time the courts of the United States were reopened, the blockade removed, the custom houses re-established and postal relations resumed.

The amendment to the Constitution abolishing slavery forever within the limits of the country was also submitted to the States, and they were thus invited to, and did participate in its ratification, thus exercising the highest functions pertaining to a State. In addition, nearly all of these States, through their Conventions and Legislatures, had adopted and ratified Constitutions "of government, whereby slavery was abolished, and all ordinances and laws of secession and debts contracted under the same were declared void."

So far, then, the political existence of the States and their relations to the Federal Government had been fully and completely recognized and acknowledged by the Executive Department of the Government, and the completion of the work of restoration, which had progressed so favorably, was submitted to Congress, upon which devolved all questions pertaining to the admission to their seats of the Senators and Representatives chosen from the States whose people had engaged in the rebellion.

All these steps had been taken, when, on the 4th. day of December, 1865, the Thirty-ninth Congress assembled. Nearly eight months have elapsed since that time; and no other plan of restoration having been proposed by Congress for its measures instituted by the Executive, it is now declared, in the joint resolution submitted for my approval, "that the State of Tennessee is hereby restored to her former proper practical relations to the Union, and is again entitled to be represented by Senators and Representatives in Congress." Thus, after the lapse of nearly eight months, Congress proposes to pave the way to the admission and to representation of one of the eleven States whose people arrayed themselves in rebellion against the constituted authority of the Federal Government.

Earnestly desiring to remove every cause of further delay, whether real or imaginary, on the part of Congress to the admission to seats of loyal Senators and Representatives from the State of Tennessee, I have, notwithstanding the anomalous character of the proceedings, affixed my signature to the resolution. My approval, however, is not to be construed as an acknowledgement of the right of Congress to pass laws preliminary to the admission of duly qualified Representatives from any of the States.—Neither is it to be considered as committing me to all the statements made in the preamble—some of which are, in my opinion, without foundation, in fact, especially the assertion that the State of Tennessee has ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress. No official notice of such ratification has been received by the Executive, or filed in the Department of State; on the contrary, unofficial information from most reliable sources induces the belief that the amendment has not yet been Constitutionally sanctioned by the Legislature of Tennessee. The right of each House, under the Constitution, to judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, is undoubted, and my approval or disapproval of the resolution could not, in the slightest degree, increase or diminish the authority in this respect conferred upon the two branches of Congress.

In conclusion, I cannot too earnestly repeat my recommendation for the admission of Tennessee, and all other States, to a fair and equal participation in national legislation, when they present themselves in the persons of loyal Senators and Representatives, who can comply with all the requirements of the Constitution and the laws. By this means harmony and reconciliation will be effected, the practical relations of all the States to the Federal Government re-established and the work of restoration inaugurated upon the termination of the war, successfully completed.

Wesleyan Female College, Murfreesboro, N. C.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—The commencement exercises of Wesleyan Female College transpired on the 17th. and 18th. inst., and it will be gratifying to its friends, and the friends of education, to learn that these exercises passed off with credit to all concerned,—the eloquent speakers, the excellent President and the fair ones committed to his supervision.

On Sunday, the 15th., Bishop Doggett delivered a sermon before the young ladies, on 10th. chap., 38-42 verses of Luke, a text presenting the beautiful characters of Martha and Mary for contrast and which drew from the eminent speaker an effort in keeping with his acquired reputation for enchanting eloquence and literary attainments, and so intensly affecting as to move the large audience to tears.

Tuesday was consumed by the energetic Board of Trustees in the discussion and adoption of most important resolutions, one of which establishes the future charges at so exceedingly low a figure as to place the advantages of a thorough education within reach of those most impoverished by the war.

On Wednesday morning, at 11 o'clock, Prof. W. M. Jones delivered an address to the society of Alumni, which was chaste, beautiful, and highly appropriate. This effort was such as would reflect credit and honor upon the finished orator, and affords most encouraging promises of the future of this talented young professor of mathematics in the W. F. College. We predict for him a career of usefulness and honor. He was succeeded by Bishop Doggett, who, finding, after his arrival, that the young ladies had been unsuccessful in their endeavors to secure the services of a gentleman, kindly consented to deliver the regular annual oration, and, although his effort was ex tempore, it was replete with humor, brilliant conceptions and bold flights of eloquence. His theme was: "The Woman of the South,—her characteristics and their causes."

At 8 P. M. of the same day, the young ladies gave a magnificent concert, and the music, while difficult, was performed with an artistic skill that did the highest credit to the fair hands that discoursed it, as well as to those in charge of the musical department.

This College, as is well known, was suspended during the war, but was resuscitated nine months ago by the commendable zeal and energy of the Trustees, who are determined to continue its existence and to maintain its elevated character as a first class institution. No institution enjoys at present a brighter prospect for future success and usefulness than W. F. College. The Board of Instruction is full and eminently competent. Rev. Jas. D. Coulling, and the gentlemen and ladies associated with him, need no word of commendation. To say nothing of the many years that most of them have devoted to female education, their great success, during the past year, is sufficient testimonial for claim on the public patronage at the ensuing session, which commences 1st. October 1866.

DELTA.

INCITING A RIOT.—Cannot something be done under the laws of Virginia to punish men, who, by their incendiary harangues to the negroes of this city, urge them on to rioting and bloodshed? Wardwell and Hunnicutt, we are informed, addressed a meeting of their inky brothers on Monday evening, and told them that if they could not get their rights in the country, it was their duty to arm, and protect themselves. Is not such language, addressed to such listeners, calculated to incite a riot, and are the parties not indictable under the statute?

As a consequence of these inflammatory harangues, and with the consent, it must be supposed, of Gen. Terry, these darkeys have formed military associations, and have regular nights for the purpose of drilling. There is no evening that a negro cannot be seen parading the streets of our city, either with a musket on his shoulder or a sabre at his side, repairing to the drill ground on Navy Hill. This evidently means mischief, and, if something is not done to check such demonstrations, there will be trouble in the land. All of these "wards of the nation" are armed, and a few nights ago we witnesed the parade of a battalion of at least five hundred. One could hear the clank of their sabres and the words of command almost from one end of Broad street to the other.

We would suggest that a committee of two or three prominent citizens be sent to Washington to inform the President of the nature of the proceedings permitted, if not encouraged, here by Generals Terry and Brown, the latter of whom, we are informed, addressed the dark assemblage.

Do not these arms which the negroes have belong to the United States Government?—Richmond Whig.

Brownlow Reducing His Legislature.

NASHVILLE, July 24.—Messrs. Porter, Marable, Brittle, Forster, Martin, and Williams, members of the Tennessee House of Representatives, were expelled to-day. The two latter were the members recently arrested. Speaker Hieskell, of the House, was relieved from duty for the remainder of the term, at his own request, and Judge Norman was elected Speaker pro tem.

GENERAL PHIL. SHERIDAN is winning for himself a reputation which posterity will not pronounce "enviable." He seems to have gone a bow-shot beyond any one yet, save Beast Butler. He forbids the erection of any monument to the Confederate Dead, in his "department." How contemptible! Does the man dream of stilling the pulsations of the Southern heart? When the whole civilized world pays homage to the memory of STONEWALL JACKSON, this military dictator is so weak as to suppose his radical, fanatical, liberty hating "orders," whl prevent the erection of a monument to such a pure and illustrious hero. When the good God, who made him, shall think proper to call General LEE to his final home, does this man, Sheridan, fancy, he can prevent millions of brave, but sad hearts—sorrowing men, women and children, of a stricken nation—from erecting a "monument" to his memory? We had not thought fanaticism would push its hideous front so far.—Memphis Avalanche.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The next annual course of Lectures in the Medical College of Virginia, Richmond, will commence on the 1st of October. We invite especial attention to the announcement in another column.

Pulliam, Jones & Co., have on hand superior sweet, white lard.

We would direct attention to the advertisement of A. A. McKethan and Sons, Carriage Manufacturers, Fayetteville, N. C. From a personal acquaintance with the members of this firm, and a personal knowledge of the excellence of their work, we can confidently recommend them and it to the confidence and patronage of the public. Their manufactures, in style, finish, and durability, are not surpassed. Let us encourage home labor and skill.

HEPTINSTALL'S "WATCH-DOG."—The efficiency of this invention, advertised and heretofore referred to in our columns, was fully and successfully tested, last night, on the premises of Gov. Worth. Frequent depredations having been of late committed on the Governor's cornfield, the apparatus was placed last night in proper position, and about 9 o'clock the "dog" barked with a tremendous vim,—rousing the neighborhood with the explosion. Upon hastening to the spot, the alarmed and astonished thief was discovered making tracks in the distance, with a rapidity that evidenced his firm conviction that all the dogs of the vicinage were at his heels. It is a great invention, sure, and may be inspected at the store of Pulliam, Jones & Co.

THE CONCERT TO-NIGHT.—We have so often called attention to the subject, that our citizens, we hope, are in no danger of forgetting that the grand Musical Soiree, for the benefit of the Ladies' Memorial Association, takes place, to-night, at the Chapel of the Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind. The ladies, under the general direction of the efficient President of the Association, have been indefatigable in their exertions to render the occasion a most attractive one. Besides the imposing display of native musical talent that may be expected, they have secured the co-operation of Mr. Leo. Wheat, of whose rare and brilliant accomplishments as a Pianist we have repeatedly spoken. Mr. Wheat, indeed, has probably no superior as a musical genius, at present, in this country. His rendition of "Dixie,"—an air dear to us all from its associations,—is said to be worth, alone, to each hearer, far more than the price of admission.

The Chapel has been beautifully decorated, and every arrangement adopted, which ladies know so well how to invent, to make the evening pass off pleasantly.

Above every other consideration, let us remember the sacred object to which the proceeds of the Concert are to be devoted.

The price of admission has been fixed as follows: Single tickets $1; Family tickets, 75 cts. each person; Children 50 cents.

Doors open at 8 o'clock; Concert to begin at 8½ o'clock.

We subjoin the programme:

MR. CHARLES ELLIS has been appointed P. M. at Grove P. O., Chatham Co., N. C., and the office has been in operation for some time.

DECLINED.—The friends of Trinity College will be pleased to learn that Rev. Dr. Craven has declined the Presidency of Soule University, in Texas, and that he will remain in his present position.

BUILDING.—Messrs. Briggs, Dodd & Hicks have their machinery in full operation for planing, and are engaged in building, and furnishing any article in house-joinery. Encourage your own mechanics.

THE CROPS.—The crops, we are sorry to learn, in some sections, have been suffering severely from the late heat and drought. In the neighborhood of Henderson, Granville Co., N. C., the drought has been very severe.

SMOKING TOBACCO.—We are indebted to our friends Cowper & Moore, for a package of excellent smoking tobacco. They have it on hand in quantities.

BLACKBERRIES.—We saw yesterday, says the Norfolk Virginian, landed from the Seaboard and Roanoke Road, about 50 barrels of dried blackberries. They were from Western North Carolina, per North Carolina Central and Raleigh & Gaston Railroads, and bound for Boston. "We never saw the like. Sure as you live, somebody is awake out there. It may be a live Yankee; whoever he may be, he is "up to a thing or two," for we are told they bring a great price. The liquor-refiners, pie-makers, &c., are in the market for them."

THE RAILROAD bridge over the Treat river at Newbern has been condemned as unsafe for trains to pass over, and will be immediately rebuilt.

The Commercial says: This will not interfere for the present with passenger traffic, however, as Mr. Whitford, President of the Road, has made arrangements to leave a train on the east side to run between the river and Morehead.—Passengers will be deposited and taken at the end of the bridge on both sides, but will be required to walk over.

The bridge is a rotten, temporary structure, built by Gen. Burnside out of the poorest kind of sap timber. It was reported unsafe, some months since, to the late President of the road.

Public Meeting.

At a meeting held in the town of Hillsboro' to send delegates to the District Convention, to be held in the city of Raleigh, the following proceedings were had:

James P. Clark, Esq., acted as Chairman, and Dr. Charles J. Freeland, as Secretary of the meeting.

Hon. Josiah Turner, being called upon to explain the object of the meeting, rose and said: The purpose of the meeting was to send delegates to the Quaker city, on the 14th of August next, then and there to determine and settle the comprehensive question, whether the American people shall be governed by the free principles of a written Constitution, or the despotism as laid down and enforced by a successful and triumphant party.

The object of the Philadelphia Convention commended itself to the intelligence and patriotism of every man who pretended to any concern for the public welfare and the perpetuation of free institutions.

The people, wearied with waiting for Congress to restore peace, tranquility and representation to one fourth of the American citizens, have determined to take their own affairs into their own hands—and do what an unwilling Congress has failed to do.

For his own part he preferred this grand move should be left alone with the Northern people. The Northern despots of party have but one argument against the Philadelphia Convention. Treason and traitors, they say, will be there. If we absent ourselves from the Convention we draw their fire—we rob them of their thunder. But it may be said this is harmless theatrical thunder. So it is to us; but it kills every man north who speaks a word of hope or comfort to the South. Already a Cabinet Minister has seceded, or rather resigned, and one reason given for resigning is that the President favors the Philadelphia Convention; in other words because the President allows and encourages the people to assemble and discuss political questions. What a reason for his resignation! Well is it for the broad brims and shad coats of William Penn's city, that the Secession Minister is not President. If he were President, the Philadelphia Convention might be adjourned with grape and canister. It was now too late to argue the expediency of sending delegates from the South to the Philadelphia Convention. He regarded the question as settled; it only remained for us to send our best men.

Mr. Turner spoke of the despotism of party as no more to be endured than the despotism of Monarchy. He feared we would have to endure the despotism of the present party for an indefinite period; at all events until the Northern people changed the complexion of Congress by their action at the polls. Mr. Turner concluded by offering the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1st. That we, a portion of the people of Orange county, have seen with approbation the proposition to hold a Convention in the city of Philadelphia on the 14th of August next, to promote the policy of the President of the United States in restoring all the States to representation in Congress, and the enjoyment of their rights under the Constitution, and will unite with our fellow citizens in other parts of North Carolina in sending delegates to said Convention.

Resolved, 2nd. That delegates be appointed by the Chairman of this meeting, to meet in Raleigh with the delegates from other counties of the district, to appoint suitable delegates to said Philadelphia Convention.

Resolved, 3rd. That the proceedings of this meeting be handed to the Hillsborough Recorder for publication, and that the Raleigh Sentinel and other papers favorable to the sentiments thus expressed be requested to publish the same.

Mr. Nash said it was important that we should be represented by our first and best men; to that end he moved that Hon. Wm. A. Graham be recommended to the district convention as a delegate for the State at large. Dr. Freeland moved to amend by adding the names of Hon. William Eaton, Jr., Hon. John M. Morehead and Hon. John A. Gilmer. The question being taken on the motion of Mr. Nash, amended as proposed by Dr. Freeland, it was unanimously adopted.

The meeting then adjourned sine die.

Delegates appointed to attend the district Convention in Raleigh:

H. K. Nash, esq., Thomas Webb, Major John A. Graham, R. F. Morris, William N. Patterson, N. P. Hall, John A. Turrentine, Thomas H. Hughes, Henry N. Brown, Allen Brown, Hon. Samuel F. Phillips, Hon. Josiah Turner, Paul C. Cameron, esq.

JAMES P. CLARK, Char'n
CHARLES J. FREELAND, Sec'y.

Tennessee.

It seems that the Speaker of the lower House in the Legislature of Tennessee has refused to certify that the constitutional amendment has been ratified by the body over which he presides. He cannot agree that there was a proper quorum present and voting on the measure. We are glad to see that this Speaker has so much decency and honesty. The Radicals, however, will manage to do without his certificate. A two-thirds vote of Congress can cure all irregularities.

ANOTHER FATAL DUEL.—A despatch from Mobile, of the 19th. says: "T. J. Chandler this morning at daylight fought a duel with L. Holcombe. At the second fire, Chandler received a ball through the chest, living about twenty-five minutes. Holcombe was formerly a soldier in the Federal army, and Chandler in the Confederate army. The difficulty originated in disputing whether Columbia, South Carolina, was burned by General Sherman's order or by orders of Confederate Generals."

The inventor of the Prussian needle gun had a strong sense of the beauty of nomenclature, when he called his destructive weapon by its German name, which is—Zundnabelgewehre. The name alone must have bronght terror to the soul of august Von Benedek.

An Augusta (Ga.) negress has brought a suit against a colored man for breach of promise of marriage. It's the first suit of the kind on record in that State.

A mining company have struck oil near Decatur, Alabama.

A Bureau is needed in Massachusetts. Children there do not get enough to eat, and their mothers put brown sugar in their coffee.—Alb. Argus.

The man who can make his own fire, black his own boots, carry his own wood, hoe his own garden, pay his own debts, and live without wine or tobacco, need ask no favor of him who rides in a coach and four.

WHY MR. DAVIS IS NOT TRIED.—New Jersey Review, Newark, N. J., in its number for this month, very ably sets forth the reason why the trial of Ex-President Davis is postponed.—Speaking of secession, it says: "This very heresy which they (the Radicals) now seek to punish as treason, as they have already crushed it out by force of arms, has been a cardinal principle in the political profession and faith of the very men who are urging this prosecution; they have acted upon it, and urged action upon it time and again, and they have never repudiated it for themselves, no matter how much they may reprobate it in their political enemies."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box fail taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in pe fect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disenfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

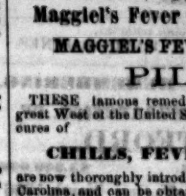
Ayer's Sarsaparilla



IS a concentrated extract of the choice root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effectual antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has, of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints.

Scrofula, Scrofulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c.

Syphilis or Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health.

Female Diseases are caused by Scrofula in the blood and are often soon cured by this Extract of Sarsaparilla.

Do not discard this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used Ayer's—then, and not till then, will you know the virtues of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the diseases it cures, we refer you to Ayer's American Almanac, which the agents below named will furnish gratis to all who call for it.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS, for the cure of Costiveness, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Dysentery, Foul Stomach, Headache, Piles, Rheumatism, Heartburn arising from Disordered Stomach, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Worms, Gout, Neuralgia, and for a Dinner Pill.

They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them pleasantly, and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say
